

Preservation Month Calendar 2005

May 1

Evansville: The Evansville Museum of Arts, History, and Science (411 S.E. Riverside Drive) will host "Evansville Lost: Landmarks Recalled" from May 1-July 17. The exhibit will highlight significant local landmarks that have been lost. There will be architectural drawings, photographs, and building remnants of the C&EI Depot/USO, Grand Theater, Emanuel Lutheran "Schule," the Rookery Building, and more. Contact the Museum at 812/ 425-2406. Admission/donation

Lafayette: "Toast to Preservation" 2pm-4pm at the Tippecanoe County Historical Museum (909 South St.) Contact Angela Bowen at 765/ 476-8411 ext. 203 for more information. Free

May 3

Plainfield: Architectural historian Paul Diebold is offering a talk about kit and catalog houses at the Plainfield-Guilford Township Public Library at 7pm. The Plainfield Library (1120 Stafford Rd) is sponsoring this illustrated talk for Preservation Month. Contact Laura Day, librarian, at 317/ 839-6602 x115. Free but registration is required.

May 4

Fort Wayne: Join ARCH, Inc. for weekly walking tours of downtown Fort Wayne highlighting the architecture and history of the area. Tour departs at 10:00am from the Barr Street Market. Reservations are encouraged but not required. Contact ARCH at 260/ 426-5117. $5 per adult; $2 age 13-18; under 12 are free

Indianapolis: "Preservation Roadshow" Come visit the staff of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (DHPA) at the historic City Market (200 block of East Market St.). The Farmers' Market takes place every Wednesday (May-October) from 10am-1:30pm. Stop by the DHPA booth, ask questions, and learn about historic preservation. Free

Lafayette: "Lost Lafayette: Historic Schools" at the Genealogy and Research Center (1001 South St.) at 7pm. Contact Angela Bowen at 765/ 476-8411 ext. 203 for more information. $3 for members of the Tippecanoe County Historical Association; $5 public

May 5

Indianapolis: Join the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology at the Scottish Rite Cathedral (650 N. Meridian St) for the first of the 2005 Hidden Indianapolis tours. Thousands of people pass by this imposing 1929 building every day. This is your chance to get inside to see the amazing interior and the newly-restored 1,100 seat auditorium. Guided tours will depart at 11:00am and at 12:00pm. Come in the south entrance. Contact Amy Walker at the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology at 317/ 232-1646 for more information. Free

Indianapolis: Architectural historian Paul Diebold is offering a talk about "Kit and Catalog Houses" at the Irvington Branch Public Library at 7pm. The Irvington Branch (5625 E. Washington St.) is sponsoring this illustrated talk for Preservation Month. Contact Mike Williams, 317/ 269-1864 for more information. Free

Indianapolis: Come to the Glendale Public Library for “Hidden Treasures of Indianapolis: Celebrating George Kessler's Contribution to Indy Landscapes” at 7pm. Program for all ages celebrates Historic Preservation Month and the Indianapolis contributions of Kessler, a nationally renowned landscape architect. Presented by Meg Storrow of Storrow-Kinsella Landscape Architects and Don Colvin of Indy Parks. Call (317) 269-1791 to register.

May 6

Indianapolis: Attend the Beckmann Theater’s opening of “Asylum” at the former 1895 laundry building of the historic Central State Hospital. The play takes place at Central State Hospital and tells the true story of a psychologist’s struggle to save a group of chronic schizophrenic patients as Central State was about to close its doors. The show runs Thursday thru Sunday until May 22. The Indiana Medical History Museum is offering free entrance to the Museum with the purchase of a ticket to Asylum on May 15 and 22, and 1/2 price admission to the Museum throughout May with a ticket stub to Asylum. Call 317-590-1454 for tickets and directions. Tickets are $15-$20

May 7

Indianapolis: The Morris-Butler House (1204 N. Park Ave.) is hosting a Historic Window Repairs, Restoration, and Retrofitting Workshop from 10am-2pm. Meet preservationists to learn more about restoration and preservation in your neighborhood! Workshop fee is only $15 per person! Please contact the Morris-Butler House staff at 317.636.5409 or mbhouse@historiclandmarks.org for reservations.

May 10

Kokomo: The Howard County Preservation Committee, in conjunction with Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana, the Kokomo Historic Review Board, the Kokomo Downtown Association and local historical societies, is sponsoring a presentation titled “Preservation Doesn’t Cost – It Pays” by Bob Yapp. It will begin at 7pm in Highland Park Church (516 W. Sycamore St.). Open to the public free of charge. For more information contact Cathy Compton at (260) 563-4534 or northcentral@historiclandmarks.org or Rachel Jenkins at (765) 628-3564 or rjenkins@iquest.net . Free

May 11

Fort Wayne: Join ARCH, Inc. for weekly walking tours of downtown Fort Wayne highlighting the architecture and history of the area. Tour departs at 10:00am from the Barr Street Market. Reservations are encouraged but not required. Contact ARCH at 260/ 426-5117. $5 per adult; $2 age 13-18; under 12 are free

Indianapolis: “Preservation Roadshow” Come visit the staff of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (DHPA) at the historic City Market (200 block of East Market St.). The Farmers’ Market takes place every Wednesday (May-October) from 10am-1:30pm. Stop by the DHPA booth, ask questions, and learn about historic preservation. Free

Lafayette: Architectural historian Paul Diebold is offering a talk about "Kit and Catalog Houses" at 7pm at the Wells Community Center (638 North Street). Contact Angela Bowen at 765/ 476-8411 ext. 203 for more information. Free

New Albany: Come discuss Jeanne Burke's article "Neighborhoods Enjoy Immediate Benefits When a Historic Home Is Restored" at Destinations Book Sellers (604 E. Spring St.) from 7:00-8:30 pm. Call Randy Smith at 812/944-5116 for more information. Free and open to the public

May 12

Fort Wayne: Friends of the Parks' Annual is holding their annual Hat Luncheon. This annual event raises funds to help the historic parks of Fort Wayne's nationally recognized George Kessler Park and Boulevard System. This year's event will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Fort Wayne Board of Park Commissioners and will be held from 11:30am-1pm at Foster Park. Guest speaker Tupper Thomas, Executive Director of Prospect Park Alliance, will discuss the operation and restoration of the 560-acre park in Brooklyn. Attendees should wear a hat and reservations are required. Call Amy Beatty at 260/ 456-2548 for information. $50 per person

Indianapolis: The second of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology's Hidden Indianapolis tours will take place at the Indiana War Memorial (431 N. Meridian St.). The tours will depart at 11am and 12pm. Go in the north doors (Michigan St.) and meet in the lobby. Don't miss this opportunity to see the Shrine Room—one of the gems of Indianapolis. Contact Amy Walker at the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (317/ 232-1646) for more information. Free

Jeffersonville: Screening and discussion of Blue Vinyl from 6:30pm-8:30pm. This documentary looks at the dangers posed by polyvinyl chloride (PVC) at every stage of its life cycle, from factory to incinerator. Contact the Southern Regional office of Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana at 812/ 284-4534 for location. Free

May 14

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville, in cooperation with Master Gardeners of Evansville, is sponsoring a walking tour of five gardens in the Riverside Historic District. Tour departs from the Reitz Home (corner of S.E. First and Chestnut streets). Tour lasts from 11am-12:30pm. Contact Dennis Au at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. $5 donation

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville is having a tour of Riverside North from 2pm-3:30pm. The tour departs from the Reitz House (corner of S.E. First and Chestnut streets) and will cover the heart of the Riverside National Register Historic District. Contact Dennis Au at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. Free

Fowler: The Prairie Preservation Guild is sponsoring Trailer-Trash Day at the Fowler Theatre (111 E. 5th St) from 2pm-5pm. From trashy to treasured, the Fowler Theatre will run hours of old movie trailers collected over the years at the theatre as part of their May 14 Open House. Stop in for complete tours of the historic 1940 Art Moderne theatre and hear about the renovation plans. The building is owned and has been operated almost four years by a volunteer community nonprofit group. Contact the Fowler Theatre at 765/ 884-8191. Free

Indianapolis: Cottage Home Neighborhood Association hosts their 2005 Home and Garden Tour on Saturday, May 14 and Sunday, May 15, Noon until 5:00 p.m. daily. The tour includes 12 houses and 5 additional gardens and showcases the creative living and work spaces of many neighborhood artists. Food, music, and local artists' booths will be in the Dorman Street Park. Cottage Home is a near eastside Indianapolis historic neighborhood featuring small Victorian cottages from the 1870s-1900. Tickets are $10 on day of tour or $8 in advance (available at all O'Malia's stores, Tim 'n Avi's Salvage Store, Fusek's True Value Hardware, Community Choice Federal Credit Union, Midland Arts & Antiques Market, and available online via PayPal). Children 15 and under enter free. Questions? Contact (317) 639-2814 or cottagehomeneighborhood@yahoo.com.

Indianapolis: Come to the Shelby Branch Library (2502 Shelby Street) to hear "The History of Garfield Park: Plants Used by Kessler" at 1pm. Join the co-author of the Indiana Gardener's Guide, Revised Edition, Jo Ellen Meyers Sharp, and members of Friends of Garfield Park, Inc. as they share the history of Garfield Park's development. Established in 1889, Garfield Park is the oldest park in Indianapolis. In 1908, George Kessler was hired by the Indianapolis Department of Parks as its consulting landscape architect. Kessler's German Heritage had much to do with his careful design of the Conservatory and overlook gardens. Call 269-1878 to register. Free

New Albany: Herb Sale at the Culbertson Mansion (914 E. Main St.). Come visit this 1867 home of William Culbertson, thought to be the wealthiest man in the state at that time. It is now owned by the State of Indiana. The herb sale is from 9am-4pm. 812/944-9600 Free

New Albany: Downtown Walking Tour "History, Availability, Possibility". Sponsored by Develop New Albany this tour lasts from 11am-12:30pm. Meet at the corner of Pearl and Market Streets. Called 812/941-0018 for more information. Free

Putnamville: Join the Indiana National Road Association (INRA) at their annual meeting. Learn about INRA's successes in 2004 and what they hope to accomplish in 2005. Attendees can also visit the Putnamville Museum and tour original segments of the National Road. Potluck lunch will follow the meeting which will start at 11:00am at the 1834 United Methodist Church (south side of US 40 near the intersection of US 40 and SR 243). For more information visit www.indiananationalroad.org or contact Joseph Jarzen at 765/478-3172. Free

South Bend: The South Bend Historic Preservation Commission and Northern Regional Office of Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana are sponsoring an educational workshop entitled "Old House Unveiling Workshop" conducted by Bob Yapp and Wayne Doolittle. It will be at the home of John Miller (1319 E. South St.) between 9am-2pm with an "Affordable House Painting Workshop" following from 3-4pm. Contact 574/235-9798 or 574/232-4534 for more information. Free

May 15

Evansville: The Vanderburgh County Historical Society and the Evansville Department of Metropolitan Development are co-sponsoring a walking tour of downtown Evansville. Special emphasis will be on memories from the 1950s. Refreshments will be provided. Tour starts at the Signature School (610 Main St.) at 2pm. Contact Dennis Au at 812/436-7823 for more information. Free

Indianapolis: Second day of the Cottage Home Neighborhood Home Tour. See May 14th information.

Madison: The Cornerstone Society, Inc., of Madison will show the 15-minute WWII propaganda film "The Town" (which was shot in Madison) at 2 pm on Sunday, May 15, at the Madison-Jefferson County Library (420 W. Main St.). After the movie, preservationists, opinion leaders, and audience members will be invited to speak for two minutes each on anything touching preservation in Jefferson County. Refreshments will follow the meeting. Contact Meredith Gregg at 812/265-4197. Free

Sheridan: Join the Sheridan Historical Society for a tour of the Davenport-Bradfield House (106 E. 2nd St.) from 2pm-4pm. Light refreshments will be served. Contact Wilma Bush at 317/ 758-5845 for more information. $5 admission

May 17

Evansville: Evansville Department of Metropolitan Development is offering a sunset tour of Riverside from 6:30pm-8pm. Gather at S.E. Riverside and Chandler to see some of the best early 20th-century architecture of Evansville. Contact Dennis Au at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. Free

New Albany: Pizza and Preservation: "Keeping the Paint on Your Historic Home". A part of the New Albany Workshop Series, this lecture is sponsored by the New Albany Preservation Commission and the Carnegie Center for Arts and History and is aimed at homeowners and contractors. It will last from 6:15-8:30pm at the Carnegie Center for Arts and History (201 E. Spring St). Free but reservations are required. Call Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana 812/ 284-4534 for reservations.

May 18

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville and the City of Evansville are hosting the 30th annual Historic Preservation Awards Banquet from 6:30pm-9pm at the Law Hall of the First Presbyterian Church (609 S.E. Second St). Thomas McGehee will be the featured speaker at 8:15pm. Mr. McGehee has held the position of director of Bellingrath Gardens and Home in Mobile, Alabama, one of the premier garden estates in the country. Reservations are required for dinner but the presentation is free. Call the Department of Metropolitan Development at 812/ 436-7823 for reservations. Cost $22 per person for dinner.

Fort Wayne: Join ARCH, Inc. for weekly walking tours of downtown Fort Wayne highlighting the architecture and history of the area. Tour departs at 10:00am from the Barr Street Market. Reservations are encouraged but not required. Contact ARCH at 260/ 426-5117. $5 per adult; $2 age 13-18; under 12 are free

Indianapolis: "Preservation Roadshow" Come visit the staff of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (DHPA) at the historic City Market (200 block of East Market St.). The Farmers' Market takes place every Wednesday (May-October) from 10am-1:30pm. Stop by the DHPA booth, ask questions, and learn about historic preservation. Free

Indianapolis: "A Reading Life" at the Indiana History Center (450 W. Ohio St). Bring your lunch (or buy one at the Stardust Café) and enjoy author Glory-June Greiff's discussion of her new book Remembrance, Faith, and Fancy: Outdoor Public Sculpture

in Indiana. From 12-1pm in the Multipurpose Room. Contact Erin Kelley at 317/ 234-3161 for more information. Free

Indianapolis: Walking tour of downtown sculpture. Join historian Glory-June Greiff for a tour of the variety of sculpture in downtown Indianapolis. Tour last departs at 5:30 from the southwest corner of Ohio and Senate by the Indiana State Library. It will last until about 7:30. Contact Glory-June Greiff at 317/ 637-6163 for more information. Free

May 19

Evansville: Evansville Department of Metropolitan Development is offering a tour of Akin Park from 6:30pm-8pm. Tour of this 1916 park departs from the corner of Madison Avenue and Park Drive. A variety of bungalows and Prairie style homes highlight the tour. Contact Dennis Au at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. Free

Fort Wayne: The West Central Neighborhood is hosting “Enterprising West Central”—an open house featuring distinctive West Central businesses and their historic buildings. Tour these five historic buildings on Pearl, Harrison, Wayne, and Broadway from 5pm-8pm. Contact Jill Downs at 260/ 385-9378. Free

Indianapolis: To celebrate Historic Preservation Month, come and watch Historic Preservation in Indiana at the Indiana History Center (450 W. Ohio St). This film on historic preservation is intended to help viewers learn where to go for technical assistance and restoration advice while also educating them on Hoosier architecture. This is part of the “Cole Porter Room Film Series” and begins at 12pm. Contact Erin Kelley at 317/ 234-3161 for more information. Free

Indianapolis: The third site of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology’s Hidden Indianapolis tours will be at White River State Park. Come learn about the historic resources located within the park including the Indianapolis Water Company Pumping Station, the old Washington Street Bridge, Military Park, and more. Meet at the vPumphouse Visitors Center (801 W. Washington St.) and tours will depart at 11am and 12pm. Contact Amy Walker at 317/ 232-1646 for more information. Free

Scottsburg: Join the Scott County Preservation Alliance for the official unveiling of the Scott County Interim Report. Shannon Hill and Laura Renwick, both of Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana, will talk about architecture in Scott County. The presentation will begin at 7pm at the Scott County Heritage Center and Museum, 1050 S. Main. Call 812/ 752-1050 for more information. Free

May 20

Evansville: Come tour Washington Avenue with the Evansville Department of Metropolitan Development from 6:30pm-8pm. Gather in front of the Alhambra Theater (50 Adams Ave.) and tour the area that many of the city’s first citizens called home. Contact Dennis Au at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. Free

New Albany: Marker Dedication at the Carnegie Center for Arts and History at 5pm (201 E. Spring St). A reception will follow as will a book signing at Destinations Book Sellers (604 E. Spring St.). Alan McPherson will be signing Temples of Knowledge – Andrew Carnegie’s Gift to Indiana. A catered dinner with keynote address by Alan McPherson will be held from 7-9pm at Parthenon. Reservations are required. Contact Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana at 812/ 284-4534 for reservations for dinner.

May 21

Evansville: Evansville Department of Metropolitan Development is offering a tour of Bayard Park from 2pm-3:30pm. Tour starts in front of the East Branch Library (840 E. Chandler Ave.) Contact Dennis Au at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. Free

Indianapolis: "How to research your historic home" The Indiana Historical Society is sponsoring a workshop by Joan Hostetler, owner of Heritage Photo Services. She will guide participants through the process of researching the history of their homes. The workshop will be at the Indiana Historical Society (450 W. Ohio St.) and will last from 10am-2pm. Advance registration required by May 13. Call (317) 232-1882 to register. IHS members - $10/non-members - $15 (Light refreshments provided; registration does not include lunch.)

Lafayette: Archeological Field Day at the Fort Ouiatenon Blockhouse (3129 S. River Road). This event is sponsored by the Tippecanoe County Historical Association from 1pm-4pm. Contact Angela Bowen at 765/ 476-8411 ext. 203. Free with site admission

Lafayette: Downtown Lafayette Walking Tour is being sponsored by the Tippecanoe County Historical Association. It will depart at 2pm from the Tippecanoe County Historical Museum (909 South St.). Contact Angela Bowen at 765/ 476-8411 ext. 203. Cost is $3 members; $5 public

New Albany: Marker Dedication for Fairview Cemetery. The dedication will begin at 11:00am and will be followed by a walking tour of the cemetery. Contact Alice Bower at 812/ 945-0324 for more information. Free

New Albany: Marker Dedication for Division Street School. The dedication will begin at 2pm. Contact Curt Peters at 812/ 948-8711 for more information. Free

South Bend: The South Bend Historic Preservation Commission is hosting the Southhold Preservation Awards and Breakfast at the Palais Royale at 7:30am. A sit-down breakfast will be served at 9am followed by guest speaker Will Tippens' presentation on adaptive reuses for historic buildings. Reservations are required. Contact the Commission at 574/ 235-9798 for more information. $10 per person

Vevay: The restoration of the Musee de Venoge (a c.1805 Swiss residence) outside of Vevay is almost complete. The Musee is looking for volunteers to help shape new wood shake shingles on May 21-22. The event will happen rain or shine. Call 215/ 829-0589 for more information or to volunteer. Participation is limited and all participants must be approved by the Musee. The Musee de Venoge is located west of Vevay, 1 mile north on Rte. 129. Free

May 22

Evansville: Spend the afternoon at Oak Hill Cemetery with Evansville Department of Metropolitan Development. Two tours are offered to visitors: the traditional 19th-century section of the cemetery or the 20th-century "Western Addition". Tours depart from the veteran's memorial to the right of the main entrance. Contact Dennis Au at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. Free

Evansville: The Reitz Home, Evansville's most noted Victorian jewel, will be offering free admission from 1pm-3:30pm. Located at 224 S. E. First Street, come take advantage of this once-a-year special. Contact the Reitz Home Preservation Society at 812/ 426-1871 for more information. Free

Indianapolis: The Indiana Historical Society and the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology are co-sponsoring a cemetery workshop for educators from 1pm-4pm. Attendees will meet at an Indianapolis cemetery to learn how to use cemeteries as educational tools, the laws surrounding cemetery restoration, and appropriate preservation techniques through hands-on experience. Light refreshments will be provided. Registration is required by May 13, 2005. Contact Becca at the Indiana Historical Society at 317/ 234-4549 to register. Cost is $20 per participant.

Roanoke: Attend “Roanoke: The Renaissance of a Hoosier Village” from 1pm-5pm in downtown Roanoke. This event is ARCH, Inc.’s annual fundraiser and promises to be a delightful Sunday afternoon. The event includes tours of restored buildings, gourmet food, restoration works-in-progress, signed copies of Roanoke: The Renaissance of a Hoosier Village and activities for the whole family. Ticket and event information call 260/ 426-5117. $75 per adult; children 17 and under free when accompanied by adult

Vevay: The restoration of the Musee de Venoge continues. See May 21 entry.

May 23

Indianapolis: From 2pm-5pm Near East Side Community Organization (NESCO) History & Preservation Committee will be holding a photograph copy clinic at Spades Park Library (1801 Nowland Ave). They want to copy photographs or historic documents of the near eastside of Indianapolis for their history archives and are particularly interested in architectural and business history and are seeking photographs of houses, stores, streetscenes, parks, schools, and churches. They will scan photographs while you wait. Make reservations by contacting (317) 639-2814 or hostetler@indy.rr.com.

New Albany: Showing of Blue Vinyl (98 minutes) followed by “Preservation Conversation”. Destinations Book Sellers (604 E. Spring St) from 6-9:30pm, contact Randy Smith at 812/ 944-5116 for more information. Free

May 24

Greentown: The Howard County Preservation Committee, in conjunction with Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana, the Kokomo Historic Review Board, the Kokomo Downtown Association and local historical societies, is sponsoring a presentation titled “How to Research Your Historic Home” by Suzanne Stanis. The workshop will begin at 7pm at Meridian Street Christian Church (205 N. Meridian St). For more information contact Cathy Compton at (260) 563-4534 or northcentral@historiclandmarks.org or Rachel Jenkins at (765) 628-3564 or rjenkins@iquest.net. Free

Huntertown: The City of Fort Wayne and Allen County are in the process of developing the area’s first combined comprehensive plan. One component will address the county’s historic resources and cultural heritage. Come to the open house at Huntertown Elementary School (15330 Lima Rd) between 5pm-7pm to learn about the draft recommendations. Contact Creager Smith, Historic Preservation Planner, for more information at 260/ 427-2161. Free

New Albany: Pizza and Preservation: “How to Fix Bricks”. A part of the New Albany Workshop Series, this lecture is sponsored by the New Albany Preservation Commission and the Carnegie Center for Arts and History. It will last from 6:15-8:30pm at the Carnegie Center for Arts and History (201 E. Spring St). Free but reservations are required. Call Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana 812/ 284-4534 for reservations

May 25

Fort Wayne: Join ARCH, Inc. for weekly walking tours of downtown Fort Wayne highlighting the architecture and history of the area. Tour departs at 10:00am from the Barr Street Market. Reservations are encouraged but not required. Contact ARCH at 260/ 426-5117. $5 per adult; $2 age 13-18; under 12 are free

Indianapolis: “Preservation Roadshow” Come visit the staff of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (DHPA) at the historic City Market (200 block of East Market St.). The Farmers’ Market takes place every Wednesday (May-October) from 10am-1:30pm. Stop by the DHPA booth, ask questions, and learn about historic preservation. Free

New Haven: The City of Fort Wayne and Allen County are in the process of developing the area’s first combined comprehensive plan. One component will address the county’s historic resources and cultural heritage. Come to the open house at New Haven Library (648 Green St.) between 5pm-7pm to learn about the draft recommendations. Contact Creager Smith, Historic Preservation Planner, for more information at 260/ 427-2161. Free

May 26

Fort Wayne: The City of Fort Wayne and Allen County are in the process of developing the area’s first combined comprehensive plan. One component will address the county’s historic resources and cultural heritage. Come to the open house at The History Center (302 E. Berry St.) between 5pm-7pm to learn about the draft recommendations. Contact Creager Smith, Historic Preservation Planner, for more information at 260/ 427-2161. Free

Indianapolis: The last of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology’s Hidden Indianapolis tours will be at the Athenaeum (401 E. Michigan). Many know this building because of the restaurant. Come learn about the long-standing history of this key piece of German-American heritage. Tours depart at 11:00am and 12:00am. Meet by the awning for the YMCA (east end of the building on Michigan St.) Contact Amy Walker at 317/ 232-1646 for more information. Free

May 28

Lafayette: Founders Day Celebration Breakfast at the Farmers Market (5th and Main Sts.) from 6:30am-12:30pm. Contact Angela Bowen at 765/ 476-8411 ext. 203.

Admission to the market is free, cost for breakfast varies

Lafayette: “Architecture for Kids” will depart at 10am from the Tippecanoe County Historical Museum (909 South St.). Contact Angela Bowen at 765/ 476-8411 ext. 203. The tour is free with site admission.

New Albany: Come tour the Scribner House (3781 Quarry Rd) for free. The Piankeshaw Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is sponsoring free tours of the house from 11:30am-1pm. Contact Nona Bell at 812/ 945-1939. Free

New Albany: The Floyd County Historical Society is hosting a walking tour of Mansion Row from 1-3pm. Tour begins at the Scribner House (3781 Quarry Rd) and features “live stories” from “women of Main Street”. Contact Dave Condra at 812/ 923-1330.

Free

May 29

Lafayette: Greenbush Cemetery Tour from 1pm-4pm (Union and 9th Sts.). Contact Angela Bowen at 765/ 476-8411 ext. 203. Cost is $3 members; $5 public

May 31

New Albany: Pizza and Preservation: “Energy Retro-fitting Double-hung Wood Windows”. A part of the New Albany Workshop Series, this lecture is sponsored by the New Albany Preservation Commission and the Carnegie Center for Arts and History. It will last from 6:15-8:30pm at the Carnegie Center for Arts and History (201 E. Spring St). Free but reservations are required. Call Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana 812/ 284-4534 for reservations